APPENDIX B – WAGE GRID FOR PART TIME FACULTY	31

ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE

- 1.01 The general purpose of this agreement is to establish an orderly collective bargaining relationship between King's University College ("the Employer") and its employees represented by the CUPE Local 5265 ("the Union"); to ensure the prompt and equitable handling of employment related disputes; and to jointly recognize the mutual value of continued dialogue in all matters relevant to working conditions, wage scales and other employment related matters in a fair, cooperative and respectful manner. This agreement shall supersede all previous agreements and arrangements between the Employer and the employees represented by the Union.
- 1.02 Both parties agree to act in a fair and reasonable manner when exercising their rights under this collective agreement.
- 1.03 The use of the female or male pronouns shall be considered to include all genders.

ARTICLE 2 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 2.01 The Union recognizes that it is the right of the College to exercise, the regular and customary function of the Employer and to direct the workforce, subject to the terms of this agreement.
- 2.02 Without limiting the generality of the above, these management functions include, but are not limited to:
- a) Decisions related to hiring, appointing, re-appointing, not appointing, classifying, directing, assigning, transferring, laying off or recalling, discharging, reprimanding, suspending or otherwise disciplining employees. A claim of discriminatory exercise of these management functions, including layoff or a claim of discipline without just cause, shall be dealt with through the grievance and arbitration procedures, as provided for in this agreement;
 - b) Generally manage the College and without restricting the generality of the foregoing: determine the number of employees required, determine the requirements of a job, the standards of the work to be performed, the methods, procedures, and equipment, schedules of work and all other matters concerning the operation of the College;
 - c) Maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
 - d) Expand, reduce, alter, combine, transfer or cease any course, job, program, Department/School, operation or service, provided that any expansion, alteration, combining, transfer or ceasing of any course, job program, department or school is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement;

- e) Develop, implement, modify and amend policies, rules, procedures and practices provided that such policies, rules, procedures and practices are not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement; and
- f) The Employer agrees that these functions shall be exercised in a manner consistent with the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 3 - EMPLOYEES REPRESENTED

3.01 All persons employed as Part-time faculty members by King's University College in London, Ontario, to teach in University degree credit courses, save and except for:

- a) persons holding full-time academic appointments at any rank and faculty hired on a limited term appointment (LTA). LTA shall be defined as full-time faculty not holding tenure or tenure track positions; and
- b) persons invited by reason of professional status or unique qualifications to give occasional or guest lectures or seminars, making up part of a course offered in a degree-credit program.

3.02 Work of the Bargaining Unit

No later than May 1st of each year, the Academic Dean in consultation with the Chairs/Director will make available to the Union a listing of courses (not covered by full-time faculty), to be offered to members of the Union.

Except as noted above and in Article 3.01, persons whose positions (paid or unpaid) are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any positions, which are included in the bargaining unit, except in cases mutually agreed upon in writing by the Parties.

3.03 No Other Agreements

No employee shall be required or permitted to make any written or verbal agreement with the Employer or their representatives, which may conflict with the terms of this Collective Agreement. No individual employee or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the Employer without proper authorization from the Union.

3.04 No Contracting-Out

In order to provide job security for the members of the bargaining unit, the Employer agrees that all work or services performed by the members shall not be sub-contracted, transferred, leased, assigned or conveyed, in whole or in part to any other person or non-bargaining unit member, except as described in this agreement.

3.05 Representatives of the Canadian Union

The Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of representatives of the Canadian Union of Public Employees or any other advisors when dealing or negotiating with the Employer. However, the local union will advise the Employer if a CUPE representative will attend a meeting and provide rationale as to the reason for their attendance.

ARTICLE 4 - HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION

- 4.01 King's University College is committed to providing a workplace and learning environment free from harassment and discrimination where everyone is treated with respect and dignity.
- 4.02 The Parties agree that the College's Harassment and Discrimination Policy, as revised by College Council from time to time, shall apply to all members of the Union.
- 4.03 The Employer and the Union agree to the definition of harassment as defined in the College's Harassment and Discrimination Policy and as defined under the Occupational Health and Safety Act and the Ontario Human Rights Code.
- 4.04 The Parties agree that any allegation of harassment under this Article shall be handled through the College's Harassment and Discrimination Policy in a confidential manner. If a member is not satisfied with the outcome, then a grievance can be filed under this agreement.
- 4.05 In the event of a grievance resulting from any alleged violation of this Article, the grievers may, where the person against whom the allegation is being made is their supervisor, Chair/Director, or Dean, refer the grievance to the next highest step of the grievance procedure.
- 4.06 Where a grievance has been filed under article 4, the employee shall have the right to Union representation throughout the grievance process.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION SECURITY AND CHECK-OFF

5.01 Union Security

All employees of the Employer, shall, as a condition of continuing employment, become and remain members in good standing of the Union, according to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Union. As a condition of employment, all new employees shall become and remain members in good standing of the Union within thirty (30) days of employment. The Employer shall deduct from every employee any dues, initiation fees, or assessments levied by the Union on its members.

5.02 Deductions-Direct Remittance

Deductions shall be made from the monthly payroll and shall be forwarded to the National Secretary-Treasurer of the Canadian Union of Public Employees, by no later than the 15th day of the month following, accompanied by a completed Union dues remittance form, supplied by the Union, and an electronic spreadsheet indicating the pay period covered by the deduction and the following information for all employees from whose wages the deductions have been made: name, current employment status, classification/job title, earnings, and dues deducted.

The Employer will also send a copy of the Union dues remittance form and spreadsheet to the Local Union Secretary-Treasurer.

The Union shall indemnify and save the College harmless from any and all claims, lawsuits, judgements, attachments, and from any form of liability arising from or as a result of the deduction of such dues.

5.03 New Employees

- a) The Employer agrees to acquaint new employees with the fact that a Union Agreement is in effect and with the conditions of employment set out in the Articles dealing with Union Security and Dues Check-Off; and
- b) The Employer agrees that a Local Union representative will be given the opportunity to meet with each newly-hired employee who is a potential member of the Union, once during the employee's first week of employment, for the purpose of advising such employee of the existence of the Union and of their rights and obligations under the terms of this Agreement. The Employer will notify the Union of the date and time of the summer orientation day and invite the Union representative to do a presentation that will not exceed one (1) hour in duration.

5.04 T4 Slips

The Employer will report the yearly amount of union dues paid by each employee on the employee's T-4 slip or any other legal reporting requirement which replaces the requirement to report dues remitted on a T-4 slip in the future.

5.05 Contact Information

The Employer agrees to provide the Union three (3) times each year, an electronic list of all the employees in the bargaining unit as of October 1st, February 1st, July 1st, (which include all intersession employees) each year. The list will include each person's name, job title/classification, home mailing address, home telephone number (and other available personal telephone numbers, such as cellular numbers), and work e-mail. The Union shall also be notified when a new employee is hired within thirty (30) days of hire.

5.06 The Employer agrees to provide the Union annually, and before the commencement of the fall/winter session, with a breakdown, by academic session, Faculty and type of position held, of the volume and distribution of employment in the bargaining unit during the previous twelve months ending with the summer session.

5.07 The Employer agrees to prepare and provide copies of this Collective Agreement. The cost associated with printing the Collective Agreement will be shared equally by both Parties. The Employer shall provide the Union with ten (10) signed copies of the Collective Agreement. The Employer will also provide a signed copy in PDF and an unsigned electronic Word document. The Employer also agrees to post the Collective Agreement on the College website. Should the Union require additional copies of the Collective Agreement, the Union may request that additional copies be printed at the Union's cost. The Union will not unreasonably request additional copies of the Collective Agreement and the University will not unreasonably deny such a request.

5.08 The Union shall have the use, free of charge, of the internal University postal service. External mailing costs of the Union shall be borne by the Union. The College shall allow the Union the use of College catering services, computing services and audio-visual services at standard cost.

5.09 The College will assist the Union in retaining office space on campus, which will include internet and local phone service, in order to facilitate the orderly administration of this Agreement. The Employer will also designate web space for members and will post a link to the Local 5265 website.

- 5.10 The Employer shall permit CUPE, Local 5265 to book University rooms through the regular method for meetings of the Local on the same priority basis as other internal users. CUPE, Local 5265 will be responsible for any set up costs, catering or staff overtime costs associated with the room booking.

ARTICLE 6 - NO STRIKE OR LOCK-OUT

- 6.01 The Union agrees that there shall be no Strike (partial or full withdrawal of services) during the term of this Agreement nor will the Union or any of its members (during their scheduled hours of work) take part in sympathy strikes, work slowdowns, or any other such related action arising from the activities of other units, Locals, Unions, employee groups or persons.
- 6.02 The Employer agrees that there shall be no Lock-out during the term of this Agreement.
- 6.03 Strike and Lock-out bear the meanings used in the Ontario Labour Relations Act, 1995, S.O. 1995, c.1, Schedule A.
- 6.04 Members have the right to decline to perform any duties of striking or locked-out employees of the Employer during a legal Strike by another Bargaining Unit of employees of the Employer or during any Lock-out of another Bargaining Unit by the Employer.

ARTICLE 7 - UNION/MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

7.01 Representation

No individual employee or group of employees shall undertake to represent the Union at meetings with the College without proper written authorization from the Union. In order that this may be carried out, the Union will supply the Employer with the names of its officers. Similarly, the Employer shall supply the Union with a list of personnel with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

7.02 Union Officers and Committee Members

Union officers and committee members shall be entitled to leave their work in order to carry out their functions under this agreement, including, but not limited to, the investigation and processing of grievances, attendance at meetings with the Employer, participation in negotiations and arbitration, however, it is understood that in all matters related to scheduling every attempt shall be made to respect the teaching duties of members.

7.03 Bargaining Committee

A Bargaining Committee shall be appointed and consist of not more than three (3) members of the Employer, as appointees of the Employer, and not more than three (3) members of the Union as elected by the members. Prior to bargaining, the parties will advise each other of their committee members.

Bargaining Committee members shall be entitled to time away from work in order to carry out their functions under this agreement, including, but not limited to: attendance at meetings with the Employer, participation in negotiations. It is understood that in all matters related to scheduling every attempt shall be made to respect the teaching duties of members.

7.04 Labour/Management Committee

Purpose of the Labour/Management Committee:

The Union and the Employer acknowledge the mutual benefits to be derived from joint consultation and approve the establishment of a Joint Labour/Management Committee consisting of three (3) representatives from each party.

The Committee shall function in an advisory capacity only:

- a) The purpose of the Committee shall be to provide a means by which to facilitate and promote cooperation, understanding, confidence and harmonious relations between the Employer and the Union.
- b) In addition to its advisory capacity in matters relating to this Agreement the Joint Labour/Management Committee shall function as a forum in which the Employer and the Union shall advise each other of anticipated trends or policy changes which may have a major impact on the bargaining unit.
- c) A representative of each party shall be designated as a Joint Chairperson and the two (2) persons shall alternate in presiding over meetings.
- d) The presiding co-chair shall prepare a summary of issues and decisions reached by the Parties each time the Committee meets. This summary will then be forwarded to the other party's co-chair within a reasonable period of time after the meeting. The co-chairs shall then review the summary and, if the summary accurately reflects the decisions reached in the meeting, sign the document.

7.05 Jurisdiction of Committee

The Committee shall not have jurisdiction over wages, or any matter of collective bargaining, including the administration of this Collective Agreement.

The Committee shall not supersede the activities of any other committee of the Union or of the Employer and does not have the power to bind either the Union or its members or the Employer to any decisions or conclusions reached in their discussions. The Committee shall have the power to make recommendations to the Union and the Employer with respect to its discussions and conclusions.

7.06 Meetings of Committee

The Committee shall meet at least once per term and any other additional dates as agreed to by the parties, at a mutually agreeable time and place. Its members shall receive a notice and agenda of the meeting at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the meeting.

7.07 Health and Safety Committee

- a) The parties agree to abide by the Occupational Health and Safety Act, R.S.O. 1990, c. O.1 and its regulations as amended from time to time. The Employer and the Union agree that they mutually desire to maintain standards of safety and health in the workplace in order to prevent injury and illness.
- b) The College and the Union agree that two members (one participant and one alternate) of the Union will participate in the existing Joint Health and Safety Committee
- c) The employees agree to full co-operation of all safety rules and practices.
- d) The College shall take every precaution reasonable in the circumstances for the protection of a worker.

At least one of the members of the committee will be selected by the Union and will be trained to be a certified worker as defined under the Act. Training shall be provided with full costs paid by the Employer.

7.08 Union Meetings

The Employer will permit the use of its premises for the purpose of Union meetings of Local 5265 without cost to the Union.

7.09 Committee Meetings

The parties agree that not all work on the below committees will be compensated, however the Employer recognizes the important function of the work performed by these committees and therefore agrees to make available disbursements to union members who engage in formal meetings with the employer for scheduled matters.

A flat annual stipend of $800 per committee responsibility will be paid to each committee member. Total disbursement from the fund shall not exceed the maximum rate provided for a half course load annually. These disbursements shall be provided as income and the Union shall be provided a monthly statement of the funds available and those used.

Such formal meetings shall be conducted through the following committees:

- a) Bargaining Committee (3 members during bargaining year)
- b) Grievance Committee (2 members irrespective of formal meetings)
- c) Labour/Management Committee (3 members)
- d) Health and Safety Committee – including required training for the committee member (2 members)
- e) Or, as otherwise agreed to by the Parties.

Work Site Access

- 7.10 Designated Union representatives will be given access to meet with employees covered by this Collective Agreement during non-teaching times of the day.

ARTICLE 8 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

8.01 Recognition of Union Stewards and Grievance Committee

In order to provide an orderly and speedy procedure for the settling of grievances, the Employer acknowledges the rights and duties of the Union Steward or designate from the Union Executive to assist the employees in preparing, processing and presenting a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure.

8.02 Permission to Leave Work

The Employer agrees that Stewards and/or their designate from the Union Executive shall not be hindered, coerced, restrained or interfered with in any way in the performance of their duties, while investigating disputes and presenting grievances as provided in this Article.

8.03 Definition of Grievance

A grievance shall be defined as any difference arising out of the interpretation, application, administration, or alleged violation of this Collective Agreement.

The Parties acknowledge that only the Union or the Employer has carriage of grievances.

8.04 Informal Discussion:

The College and the Union mutually agree that it is the desire of the Parties hereto that disputes shall be adjudicated/dealt with as quickly as reasonably possible.

An earnest effort shall be made to settle differences informally between a member and their Chair or Director at a meeting arranged for this purpose. Failing a successful settlement of such dispute, grievances will be settled fairly and promptly in the following manner:

Grievance Procedure:

Step 1:

If the Steward and/or their designate consider the grievance to be justified, within ten (10) working days, the Chief Steward or designate will submit the written grievance to the Academic Dean (or designate) who shall within ten (10) working days, hold a meeting of the parties involved and shall render their decision within ten (10) working days after such meeting.

Step 2:

Failing satisfactory settlement being reached in Step 1, within ten (10) working days, the Chief Steward or designate will submit the written grievance to the Principal (or designate) who shall within ten (10) working days, hold a meeting of the parties involved and shall render their decision, in writing, within ten (10) working days after the meeting.

Step 3:

Failing a satisfactory settlement being reached in Step 2, the Union may refer the dispute to arbitration.

It is understood that where a complaint relates directly to an action, alleged inaction, or alleged inappropriate conduct by the Chair, the complainant may choose to bypass the informal complaint stage and file a formal grievance directly.

8.05 Mediation

By mutual consent, the parties may agree to use the services of a mediator prior to proceeding to Arbitration. The parties agree to share the costs of the mediation.

8.06 Policy/Group Grievance

Where a dispute involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs, or where a group of employees or the Union has a grievance, Step 1 of this Article may be bypassed..

8.07 Either Party May Initiate Grievance

The Union and its Representatives shall have the right to initiate a grievance under Article 8.06 on behalf of an employee, or group of employees and to seek adjustment with the Employer in the manner provided in the Grievance Procedure. Such a grievance shall commence at Step 2.

The College shall have the right to initiate a grievance under Article 8.06 and to seek adjustment with the Union in the manner provided in the Grievance Procedure. Such grievance will commence at Step 2.

8.08 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

After a grievance has been initiated by the Union, the Employer's representative shall not enter into discussion or negotiation with respect to the grievance, either directly or indirectly with the aggrieved employees, without the consent of the Union. Violation of this section shall result in the grievance being allowed.

All grievances shall be in writing at all stages and shall include:

- a) The date of the grievance;
- b) The nature of the grievance and any supporting documentation which the Union believes is relevant in support of the grievance;
- c) Where applicable, the names of the complainant(s);
- d) The remedy sought;

- e) The Article(s) of this agreement allegedly violated or the alleged occurrence said to have caused the initiation of the grievance; and
- f) The signature of the employee(s), where applicable and the Union Designate(s).

Replies to all grievances shall be in writing at all stages.

8.09 Meeting Rooms for Grievances

The Employer shall supply the necessary facilities for the grievance meetings.

8.10 Time Limits

The time limits in both the grievance stage(s) and the arbitration stage may be extended only by mutual written consent of both parties to this Agreement. Any redress sought by the grievance may be impacted by a procedural delay. Similarly, no step in the grievance procedure may be waived without mutual, written consent of both parties to this Agreement.

Where no answer is given within the time limit specified, the grieving party shall be entitled to submit the grievance to the next stage of the Grievance procedure.

No grievance may be submitted to arbitration which has exceeded the time limit stipulated in Article 8.11.

8.11 Referral to Arbitration

If arbitration of any grievance is to be invoked, the request shall be made by either party within thirty (30) working days after the dates of the reply at Step 2.

8.12 Definition of Working Days

"Working day" as used in the Grievance and Arbitration procedure shall mean a day other than Saturday, Sunday or a recognized holiday.

ARTICLE 9 - ARBITRATION

9.01 Referral to Arbitration

It is agreed by the parties hereto that if the College or the Union request that a matter be submitted to arbitration, it shall make such request in writing addressed to the other party and at the same time state its three (3) suggested Arbitrators.

Within fifteen (15) days thereafter, the responding party will either agree to one of the suggested arbitrators or provide a new list of three (3) suggested arbitrators. If the Parties are unable to come to an agreement within a period of ten (10) days, either may then request the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario to appoint an impartial arbitrator.

The Arbitrator shall not be authorized to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify, add to or amend any part of this agreement. The jurisdiction of the Arbitrator shall be confined to the issue in dispute and shall be final and binding upon the parties.

9.02 Payment for Arbitration

Each of the parties shall equally bear the expense of the Arbitrator and any cost of the place of hearing of such arbitration.

9.03 Decision of the Arbitrator

The Arbitrator shall hear and determine the matter and shall issue a decision which shall be in writing and contain the reasons for the decision.

ARTICLE 10 - DISCHARGE, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

10.01 Progressive Discipline

The employer shall not discipline, suspend or discharge an employee without just and proper cause. Discipline action shall be reasonable and shall be demonstrably proportionate to the seriousness of the specific violation. Discipline will be commensurate with the severity and frequency of the violation, and any aggravating and/or mitigating circumstances.

The parties recognize the principle of progressive discipline and shall utilize, when appropriate such approach when addressing issues requiring disciplinary response. Should progressive discipline be required, it should promote corrective action as early as possible through the identification of issues of concern.

Disciplinary processes are not to be used to inhibit free inquiry or limit academic freedom, discussion, exercise of judgement or honest critique within or without the university.

Therefore the following process shall normally be followed when discipline is required:

1. Verbal Warning
2. Written Warning
3. Suspension- with pay during investigation

- 4. Suspension- without pay
- 5. Termination

10.02 Clearing the File

It is agreed that disciplinary/warning letters within an employee's Human Resources File shall be removed after four (4) academic terms taught from the date of issue, provided that no further discipline has been recorded within that period.

10.03 Discipline/Discharge Procedure

When an employee is discharged or suspended, the employee and the Union shall be advised promptly, in confidence and in writing by the Employer as to the reason for such discharge, suspension or warning.

10.04 May Omit Grievance Steps

An employee considered by the Union to be wrongfully or unjustly discharged or suspended shall be entitled to a hearing under Article 8, Grievance Procedure. Step 1 of the Grievance Procedure shall be omitted in such cases.

10.05 Access to Personnel File

An employee has the right to review their file no more than once per academic semester, during normal business hours of the administration office, and additionally once during a grievance process. In order to do so, employees are to submit their request in writing to Human Resources. An appointment to review the file will be arranged within five (5) working days of receipt of the request.

An employee shall have the right to respond in writing to any document contained therein. Such reply shall become part of the permanent record. An employee's request for a copy of a specific item in their personnel file will be considered and will not be unreasonably denied.

10.06 Right to Union Representation at Disciplinary Meetings

An employee shall have the right to have their Steward or designate (as determined by the Union) present at any discussion with any supervisory personnel, which the employee believes might be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes, the supervisor shall notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview. The Employer shall also notify the employee of their right to have a Union Steward or designate present at the interview. A Steward or designate shall have the right to consult with a CUPE Staff Representative.

ARTICLE 11 - SENIORITY

11.01 Seniority Defined

Employees shall accrue seniority in the Bargaining Unit from their first semester of employment in the Bargaining Unit.

All employees shall accumulate seniority based on the following:

- a) For each full course taught two (2) seniority points shall be earned.
- b) For each half course taught one (1) seniority point shall be earned.

If it is necessary to establish a tie breaker for employees with equal seniority points, the earliest date of original hire be used.

The total of the above points shall be the employee's seniority for all purposes referenced in this agreement unless otherwise noted and seniority shall operate on a discipline specific basis.

As a transitional measure, individuals who were hired prior to September 1st, 2014 and who participated in the certification vote will be attributed additional retroactive seniority points based on the following grid:

- | | |
|--|-----------|
| a) Less than 5 years of continuous service | 1 point |
| b) 5 years but less than 10 years of continuous service | 3 points |
| c) 10 years but less than 15 years of continuous service | 6 points |
| d) 15+ years of continuous service | 10 points |

Continuous service is defined as length of service unless there has been a break in service of 36 consecutive months.

11.02 Loss of Seniority

Seniority shall not be lost for any reason except:

- a) Dismissal;
- b) Resignation;
- c) Abandonment of a contract;
- d) Failing to report for a work assignment with sufficient cause after accepting such an appointment; and
- e) A break in service of thirty-six (36) consecutive months.

An employee shall not lose seniority rights if they are absent from work because of sickness or accident.

11.03 Transfers and Seniority Outside Bargaining Unit

No employee shall be transferred to a position outside the bargaining unit without their written consent. An Employee who consents in writing to be transferred and/or promoted to a position outside of the bargaining unit shall not accumulate seniority within the bargaining unit during such transfer and/or promotion. In the event that the employee is returned by the Employer to a position in the bargaining unit within thirty-six (36) calendar months of the transfer and/or promotion, the employee's seniority date shall be adjusted to reflect for the time spent outside the bargaining unit. An employee not returned to the bargaining unit within thirty-six (36) calendar months from the transfer and/or promotion shall forfeit all bargaining unit seniority.

11.04 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain a seniority list for all bargaining unit employees showing the date upon which each employee's service commenced. As of October 1st each year an up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union and posted on the website as well as on the appropriate bulletin board. An employee's name shall not be placed on the seniority list until they have completed their probationary period as outlined in Article 11.05.

Within thirty (30) days of any known corrections, the seniority list shall be updated, and this list will then be used for all of the purposes set out in the Collective Agreement.

11.05 Probationary Employees

Newly-hired employees shall be considered on a probationary basis until they have accumulated one full course equivalent. During the probationary period, employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges of this Agreement unless otherwise specified. An employee who has not completed their probationary period may be released based on a fair and proper assessment against reasonable standards of performance and suitability. After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the first semester of employment in the Bargaining Unit as defined in Article 11.01 above.

ARTICLE 12 - APPOINTMENTS

12.01 To the extent known, and at a minimum, all departments shall announce in the winter term, positions to be filled in the summer and fall terms, and in the fall term, positions to be filled in the winter term. Where a department determines there is, or is likely to be, a course or courses available for delivery, notices of vacancies shall be posted on the Union bulletin board, King's Human Resources website under Employment Opportunities and such other locations as are deemed appropriate.

Vacancies in the Bargaining Unit, which the Employer intends to fill, shall be posted by academic unit in accordance with this Article.

All postings shall include the following:

- a) A statement indicating that the contract is posted in accordance with the CUPE 5265 Collective Agreement;
- b) The course name and number and class limit;
- c) The start and termination dates for the appointment;
- d) The number of sections;
- e) Required and preferred qualifications (academic and/or professional), and academic teaching experience;
- f) Wages;
- g) Application deadline;
- h) King's University College's equity statement and Canada immigration caveat which may be amended from time to time; and
- i) Statement requiring English language proficiency.

Available positions shall be posted electronically for a minimum of ten (10) working days.

All applicants must apply via the online application process, providing an updated application and curriculum vitae for each position sought, as well as information necessary for determining their seniority as defined in Article 11 of this Collective Agreement.

It is the responsibility of the employee to demonstrate evidence of qualifications at the time of application.

It is understood that some announcements of vacancies are tentative, pending final course determinations and enrolment.

- i) In the event that a position becomes vacant or available unexpectedly, such position may be filled after posting for no less than two (2) working days;
- ii) A copy of each posting shall be forwarded electronically to the Union office within two (2) working days of its being posted. When an emergency posting is made the Union shall receive a copy without undue delay; and

- iii) All applications to the above posted positions shall be submitted to the Chair/Director of the academic unit posting the position.

12.02 Hiring Criteria

In all competitions, the University shall consider qualifications, teaching competence, capability, skill and ability and prior relevant experience. In cases where applicants are relatively equal in the opinion of the University, preference in hiring will be given to the senior bargaining unit applicant.

Notwithstanding Article 15 (Employee Evaluations), it is agreed the employer's practice in place, prior to the date of ratification, to determine an employee's ability and qualifications shall remain in place for all positions posted prior to those being posted for the 2017/2018 fall and winter academic terms and thereafter the following shall apply:

Employees applying for a position who have taught that course within the last twenty-four (24) months shall be deemed relatively equal to all candidates and to have the ability and qualifications to perform the work of the position, unless there is a written unsatisfactory performance evaluation in accordance with Article 15, within the last twenty-four (24) months in their personnel file, which has not been removed through the grievance procedure.

12.03 Offers of Appointment

All successful applicants shall be advised via email, of the offer of the work assignment. This email notification will provide the successful candidate ten (10) work days within which to accept the offer. Failure to respond in writing or by email within the specified time frame will be deemed as a refusal of the work assignment.

Once the candidate has indicated their acceptance of the appointment as per 12.03 above, the College will issue, in writing, the formal "Letter of Appointment" The appointee shall return the signed Letter of Appointment no later than ten (10) work days thereafter. A copy of each signed letter shall be forwarded to the Union within five (5) work days of receipt of the employee's signed copy.

Should a work assignment be cancelled, for whatever reason, after the offer has been made and accepted, but before the first day of classes, a 10% cancellation fee shall be paid to the employee.

Should a work assignment be cancelled, for whatever reason, on or after the first day of classes, but on or before the official last day to "add" date, a 15% cancellation fee shall be paid to the employee.

No work assignment cancellation shall occur after the official "add" date.

12.04 Workload

- a) Employees shall normally have a work load of no more than two (2) full course equivalent sections during the Fall and Winter terms, which could be any combination of full and half sections. However, with the mutual agreement of the employee and the University, the employee's workload may be increased to a maximum of 2.5 full course equivalent sections;
- b) Employees shall be limited to holding a work load equivalent to a maximum of one (1) full course equivalent sections during the Summer term, which would include Intersession, and could be either a full or two (2) half section or any other combination of summer sections;
- c) An employee who feels that the workload in the course exceeds that of a comparable course shall raise this matter with their Chair/Director without undue delay. The Chair/Director shall discuss this matter with the employee and attempt to reach agreement on workload issues; and
- d) For all purposes under this collective agreement, working hours for courses as described in Appendix A, shall be as below:
 - i. A half course shall be considered one hundred and ninety five (195) hours of work; and
 - ii. A full course shall be considered three hundred and ninety (390) hours of work.

12.05 On-line Instruction

Appointments to courses available through On-Line Instruction shall be offered to qualified employees as below:

- a) Employees shall be offered the appointment through the process outlined in Article 12.01; and
- b) All reasonable efforts will be made to hire a qualified instructor from the Province of Ontario and the Union shall be notified of such reasonable efforts made. If no such qualified applicants are available, the Employer may advertise and populate the On Line Course from outside the Province of Ontario and the Union shall be notified of such appointment.

- 12.06 All Part-time Faculty provided marker/grader assistance, shall offer this work first to qualified bargaining unit members in consultation with the appropriate department Chair.

Notwithstanding the above, those marker/grader assignments intended to support research assistance for full-time faculty may be offered first to the research assistants of the full-time faculty.

Nothing in the above prevents part-time faculty (some of whom may be graduate students) in the bargaining unit from performing the research assistant or marker/grader role for full-time faculty.

ARTICLE 13 - ACADEMIC FREEDOM

- 13.01 The common good of society depends upon the search for knowledge and its free exposition. Academic Freedom is recognized by both parties as essential to the life and functioning of the University as an institution of higher learning and as a centre for research and scholarship. Academic freedom does not imply neutrality on the part of the individual. Rather, it is academic freedom that makes commitment possible. The right to academic freedom carries with it the duty to use that freedom in a responsible way in the instruction of students, in the production of scholarly work, and the efficient functioning of the College. All Faculty have a responsibility to promote or at least respect the Catholic identity of the College.
- 13.02 All Faculty Members are entitled: to carry out their research and publish its results; to teach; to employ a pedagogical style of their choice; to be creative; to select, acquire, disseminate, and use documents of their choice in the exercise of their professional activities; and to criticize the University and the Association in a responsible way, irrespective of any prescribed doctrine and free from any and all institutional censorship. Faculty Members shall not be hindered or impeded in any way by the Employer or the Faculty Association in exercising their contractual rights as members of the College community or legal rights as citizens of the community at large, nor shall they suffer any penalties because of the exercise of such legal rights. Finally, Faculty Members have the right to cite affiliation with and title at King's University College when exercising their rights of action or expression. Faculty Members shall, however, endeavour to ensure that their actions or expressions are not interpreted as representing the official position of King's University College.

ARTICLE 14 - CORRESPONDENCE

14.01 Correspondence

All correspondence between the parties, arising out of this Agreement or incidental thereto shall pass to and from the Administrator or their designate and the Secretary of the Union with a copy sent to the Local President, National Representative of the Union and the Director of Human Resources.

14.02 Union Bulletin Boards

A union bulletin board will be located in close proximity to the Union office. The bulletin boards will be used solely for postings by the Union.

14.03 Information related to Legislative Disclosure

The Employer will provide information to the Union that will assist it to fulfill any legislative disclosure requirements. The information will be provided in writing within 10 working days of the Union requesting any such information.

ARTICLE 15 - EMPLOYEE EVALUATION AND RECORDS

15.01 The University may review the performance of Members under this Article, once per term. Such an evaluation, if any, shall be in addition to any other assessments including student assessments (SET) and feedback, which may be required by other provisions of this Agreement. If the University wishes a Member to participate in any discussion or meeting as part of this review, the Member shall receive written notice of an evaluation under this Article at least five (5) days in advance of the meeting.

The Employer and the Union agree that the purposes of performance evaluations are to maintain and improve the quality of the employee's work, to provide the employee feedback on their performance and determine suitability for future employment.

Evaluations may be provided to the employee within four (4) weeks of the conclusion of an appointment. A written record of the discussion, signed by both the Supervisor and the employee, to acknowledge the discussion has taken place, shall be retained.

Performance in an appointment will be deemed satisfactory if no formal written performance evaluation to the contrary exists, or if no performance evaluation has been conducted.

15.02 Performance and Evaluations

If the Employer determines a performance evaluation is required the following elements shall be used for the evaluation:

- a) Classroom observation of the employee's teaching effectiveness;
- b) Complete review of course materials and methodology;
- c) Review the employee's past performance;
- d) Review S.E.T.s; and
- e) Determine the impact of any mitigating factors identified.

15.03 Unsatisfactory Performance Evaluation

Should an employee receive an unsatisfactory performance evaluation, the Supervisor shall provide feedback to the employee, and where appropriate identify areas in need of improvement and develop an agreed upon improvement plan with the employee, which shall be signed by the Supervisor and the employee.

The employee may add their written comments on any evaluation which may be included in the employee's personnel file and such comments will form part of the evaluation.

15.04 Performance Discipline Process

If the employee has been unable to improve their performance after an unsatisfactory evaluation outside of the probationary period and should discipline be required, they shall enter the progressive discipline process at the written warning level.
